Town Manager DeBussy stated that the Town received a thank you and a polite letter from Dottie Harper who is now retired from Brookfield.

Town Manager DeBussy stated that the Town received an anonymous letter regarding concerns about the placement of the banners and that they thought the Town decided to segregate the banners. Library Director and the Hometown Banner Coordinator Karen Johnson was present at the meeting and stated that she has reached out to the families and the ones that have responded are gratitude and Happiness where their families' flags were placed and that these flags were placed where the families requested them to be. Karen stated that they are only trying to respect the family's wishes that paid for the banners. Commissioner Saunders stated that the Banner Ceremony was beautiful, but she was shocked at the placement of the banners. Commissioner Saunders stated that the Town needs to be more sensitive with the times that we are in, but it never occurred to her that the banners were placed where the families that paid for them wanted them placed.
